Private advices stated that Egyptian kets have not experienced a genuine war scare. It is true, discounts have hardprices hardened practically throughout the list. The local tractions were decidedly strong.

In the railway list special strength was shown by St. Paul, Pennsylvania, New York Central, Reading, Louisville and Nashville, Missouri Pacific, and Southern Railway preferred.

Speculative sentiment was stimulated materially by the increasing prospect of the completion of the annual settlements without friction. There were also rumors of the probability of further gold imports this week. Government bonds were unchanged.

Trivate advices stateć that Egyptian scare. It is true, discounts have har ened at the centers abroad, but no most than they usually do at this time that bull leaders on this side had in spired whatever buying was done abroad in their efforts to make good their predictions of 14-cent cotton.

Enormous unloading naturally occurred around the high level, but it was well absorbed by the big buying orders that had accumulated over the holidays and which came in as a result of the early cables.
